PFIAB/NSC Review Completed.

Dear Dick:

I am sorry that I was not able to persuade you to linger for a few minutes to meet and listen to the two gentlemen who had an appointment with me. They were Mr. Fred Schlafly, the President of the World Anti-Communist League, and General Tom Lane, USA (Ret.), a former official in the organization and one who you probably know is involved in all sorts of national security activities.

Mr. Schlafly stated that he was speaking on behalf of an organization known as Sociedad Brasilare de Defensa de la Tradicion, Familia y Propiedad, headquartered in San Paulo, Brazil at an address: Rua Martim Francisco 669, 01226 San Paulo, Brazil. Apparently this organization, under the leadership of a Professor Plinio Correa de Oliveira, has the capability and a motivation to do something to halt the spread of communism in Portugal. I understand that this organization is prominent in Latin America, and puts out publications in different countries in Portuguese and Spanish each month, and also has some other publications as well.

Obviously, I do not know what can be done or whether, under the present limitations which the Agency faces at the present time, you are able to do anything directly. I suspect that any action to be taken by the TFP would probably request some funding from the U.S. In any event, it is something that should be looked into, and if you want further information, please contact Mr. Schlafly, whose address is First National Bank Building, P. O. Box 190, Alton, Illinois 62002. The local office of the American Council for World Freedom is Suite 500, 1735 DeSales Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036 - telephone 783-9449.
